Join the millions of students who have taken the ACT. It's the leading college admissions test in the United States.

Register at act.org

Registering for the ACT is more than just signing up for a test. The information you provide is used to make recommendations for majors and careers. Here's what you'll need:

- About 45 minutes to complete the registration process.
- A credit card or fee waiver.
- A laptop or desktop computer is preferred.
- Your high school course list and grades.
- Your interests - our interest survey will match you to academic programs and jobs you might enjoy.
- Up to four colleges and universities to send your score reports for free during registration (additional score reports can be purchased later).
- Your photo to upload during registration or later.

Get Discovered

- Opt in to the ACT Educational Opportunity Service, which connects you with universities and financial aid institutions, based on your plans and interests.
- Access college scholarships. Academic scholarships are often awarded, in part, on your ACT scores.
- The ACT is accepted by all four-year US colleges and universities. Let your favorites know you are interested in them by sending your score reports.

Accommodations & English Learner Supports

- During the registration process, you can indicate a need for accommodations and/or English learner supports.
- After registering, we'll email you instructions on how to work with your school to request your accommodations or supports.

Be Ready for Test Day

- The ACT is based on what you learn in high school, but a variety of ACT test prep options are available to help you feel comfortable and confident on test day.
- Review what you can and cannot bring into the test room with you.

Your Scores and More

- Most scores are available through your ACT account within 2 weeks after testing (or 5 weeks for the writing test) but can take up to 8 weeks from the testing date.
- Using information you provide during registration, the ACT score report gives you research-backed guidance about your needs, interests, and possible career options that you can share with colleges.
