I, being the parent or guardian of _____ (Student), consent to the student's participation in the trip to the Veterans Home in Reserve, arranged by Riverside Academy. It is understood that my consent and authorization are subject to the following conditions:

1. Riverside Academy Board of Directors will accept responsibility for any injuries or damages which may be suffered by the student while involved in any tour or excursion which results from the negligence of Riverside Academy.
2. I hereby authorize any of the adult supervisors on the tour or excursion to consent to any medical attention the student requires while on the trip and make arrangements they feel are required for special transportations (for example, transport by ambulance).
3. I assume all the responsibility for the costs, as insurance, etc. may be limited and which can be expanded by additional private insurance for sickness and hospital expenses. I acknowledge that additional insurance for student's coverage is a parental responsibility, especially as problems arise where no negligence is apparent. I authorize the participation of the named student above.
